CHRONICLE'S STORY OF KUHIO'S ARREST

WASHINGTON, January 5.—Jonah Kalaniana'ole, better known as Prince Cupid, delegate to Congress from Hawaii, had a belated celebration of New Year's day last night and landed in jail charged with disorderly conduct. He had a wordy war with a bill collector and was arrested with the collector.

Prince Cupid tried to make it plain to the policeman that the law did not apply to members of Congress and Princes of the blood royal, but his argument fell on dull ears. At the First Precinct Station Prince Cupid became so angry that he would not put up $5 collateral and spent the night in jail. This morning a friend heard of his scrape, and put up the money without Cupid's knowledge. Cupid was still angry and wanted to fight the case. He was provided with a cup of coffee and sandwich at the expense of the District of Columbia and conveyed in the Black Maria to the police court, where the case was postponed until Thursday.

KUHIO INFORMED ABOUT COUNTY ACT

Secretary Atkinson sent the following cablegram yesterday afternoon to Delegate Kalaniana'ole at Washington:

"County Act knocked out by Supreme Court. Recommendations later."

EVANS HELD TO CLOSE NEUTRALITY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Naval officials are somewhat embarrassed as to the best disposition to be made of United States warships on the Asiatic station in view of the imminence of war between Russia and Japan. The policy of the administration is to observe the strictest neutrality and keep hands off, except in the single contingency of infringement upon American treaty rights.

When Admiral Evans' fleet was ordered back to its station from Honolulu it was arranged that the cruiser squadron should stop at Midway Island, where there is a cable station, to receive any instructions the department might desire to send. These instructions were simply for Admiral Evans' fleet to await instructions at Guam. That dispatch was delivered to the cruiser squadron, which touched at Midway on the 3d instant and left the same day for Guam, the rendezvous of the entire squadron fleet.

It is expected that Admiral Evans will reach Guam in a few days and report his arrival to the department. Inquiry at the navigation bureau develops the fact that up to this moment the admiral has received no special instructions for his guidance in the event of hostilities in the Far East.

It is now the purpose of the department to cable to the admiral a special set of instructions to meet the present conditions in the Far East, and those instructions will be delivered to him at Guam, according to the present programme. It is said at the department they will show no discrimination whatever between the parties as to any possible hostilities, but the admiral will be expected to so dispose of his force as to maintain the appearance of strict neutrality as between the belligerents.
